EIGHTH KING OF HOUSE OF HANOVER CROWNED

George And Mary Consecrated to Service of World's Greatest Empire According to Ancient Ceremonial of Britons—No Accident Marred The Day—Cheered by Thousands.

London, June 22.—King George V. eighth king of the House of Hanover, was today consecrated to the service of the British Empire and in turn received the public homage of his world-wide subjects.

With his consort Queen Mary, his majesty was crowned in the Abbey of Westminster with all the wealth of religious rites and royal ceremonial prescribed by historic custom.

The picture within the grey-walled abbey was one of medieval splendor. The coronation services, solemn and imposing, were those handed down from the earlier centuries and the actors in the principal and secondary roles of the great function today were garbed in reproductions of the multi-colored gold embroidered trappings worn by their ancestors.

Outside the usually dull streets had been transformed into a mass of color. The king and queen's progress to the abbey and the return to Buckingham palace was one unbroken ovation. The route was hedged with a vast, polyglot host with a background of bravely decorated viewing stands and windows and roofs, all of which were crammed to their capacity.

Hundreds of thousands of spectators shouted themselves hoarse at central points like the Mall and the entrance to the admiralty archway Tralfalgar Square was so densely packed that it would have been possible to traverse the square walking on the heads of people. Parliament Square, Clubland and Constitution Hill held their countless thousands.

The tumult of thunderous welcome was almost deafening as the king and queen passed on the outward and home journeys, preceded in the first instance and followed on the return by a stately, superb calvacade of eminent princes, many themselves heirs to thrones; statesmen, diplomats, courtiers, soldiers, sailors and men of all hues, races and creeds from the four quarters of the globe.

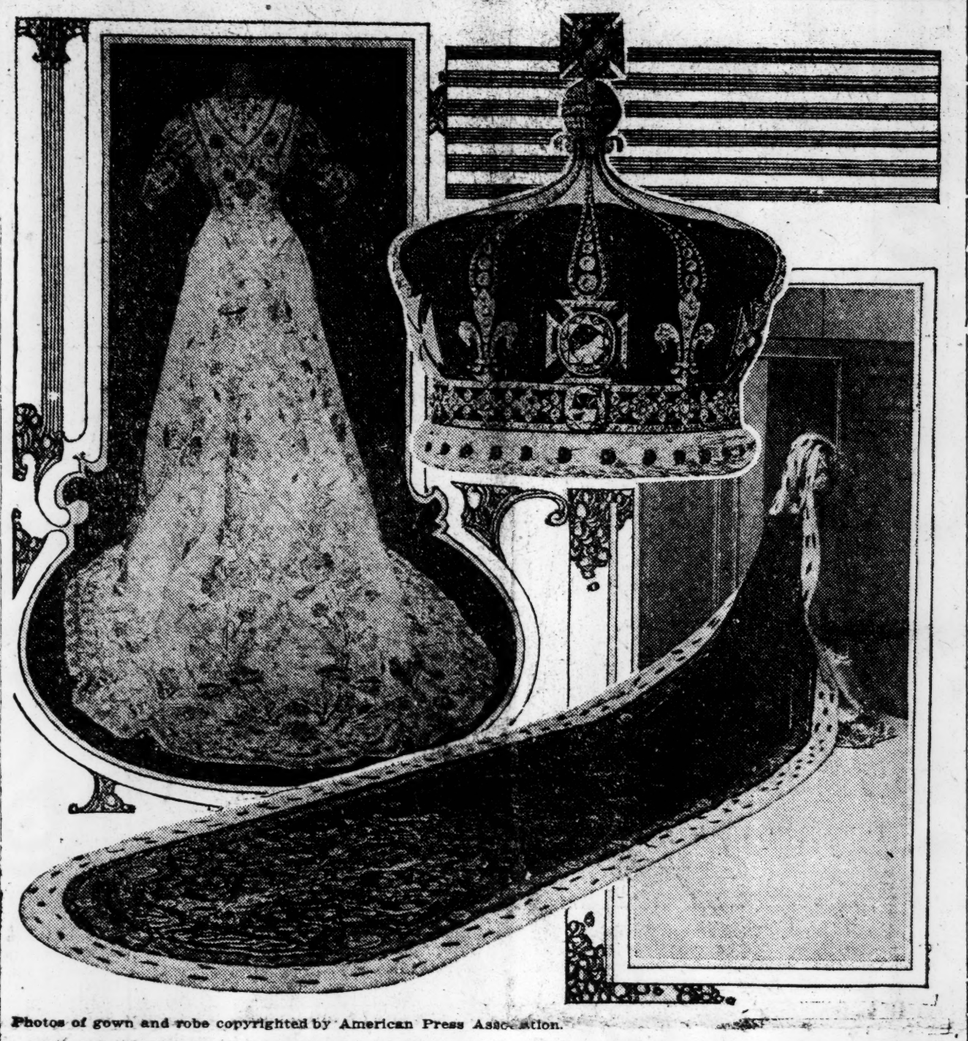
The great ceremonial passed off unmarred by untoward incidents. When dawn broke the skies were heavy and showers fell during the progress of the processions of the royal guests and the junior members of the royal family to the abbey; but as the king and queen left Buckingham palace to be crowned, the heavens smiled and a flood of sunshine brightened the the splendid pageant.

At Sandringham palace the Queen Mother Alexandra, who forty-six years ago this month, gave Britain a King, received the news that her son had taken his place in the long line of British monarchs.

A drab sky and smart showers early this morning, though they dimmed the freshness of the lavish decorations, did not dull the enthusiasm of the multitude who for months had been planning to make the 22d of June a red letter day in their lives.

Hundreds of thousands of Americans, Germans, Frenchmen and men of all lands from China to Peru, joined the hustling throng and yielded themselves up with magnificent enthusiasm to the coronation glamor.

Gorgeous Gown and Robe Worn by Queen Mary On the Occasion of Her Coronation at London.



Photos of gown and robe copyrighted by American Press Association.

The first photographs of Queen Mary's coronation robes have just reached this country. The dress is cut in princess style, the material being deep ivory duchess satin. The embroidery is of gold thread of varying tints, giving a delicate light and shade. The design shows the rose, shamrock and thistle in the form of a tree, tapering toward the waist and widening at the corsage. Around the bottom of the gown are lotus lilies on a surface of water, emblematical of India and the seas of empire. In front of the gown is the star of India enveloped by the rose, shamrock and thistle design. The queen's train is six yards long and one and a half yards wide, fastened at the shoulders with gold cord. The train is of royal purple velvet lined with ermine, with deep edges overturned forming the hem. On the inner side of the train is embroidered a chain of oak leaves and acorns with medallions of rose, shamrock and thistle at frequent intervals. The queen will also wear this robe at the Indian durbar. The gown was made in England.

WOOL REVISION BILL BACK IN SENATE WITH ADVERSE REPORT

Action of Finance Committee Makes Complex Situation in Senate More Complicated—Free List Bill Reported Adversely Also--Penrose Says Republicans Have Lost Control of Senate.

Washington, June 22.—An already complex situation was still further complicated today when the Senate finance committee decided to throw the wool revision and so-called farmers free list bills recently passed by the Democratic House of Representatives, into the broken Senate at once. Both measures received adverse committee reports. The finance committee had been instructed to report the wool bill by July 10. Senators Martin, of Virginia, and Culberson, were on their feet as soon as the adverse report was made, asking that the bill take its regular course on the calendar. A discussion ensued which lasted until the Senate adjourned. Senator Lodge said that the action of the Democrats of the Senate would kill reciprocity. At any rate, he said that the session of the Senate was likely to continue till August.

Penrose Makes Statement.

Washington, June 22.—In a statement written tonight Senator Penrose, chairman of the finance committee of the Senate, states that the Republican party has lost control of the Senate. He said that the insurgent Republicans together with the Democrats have a clear majority over the regular Republicans. When asked if it were not possible that all the legislation passed by the Democratic House would be agreed to in the Senate at this session Senator Penrose said that it was more than likely. He believes that if an attempt is made by either the insurgents or the Democratic Senators to pass any radical reductions other than those already proposed the session will run well into the fall. Senator Penrose says that if the House of Representatives is of a mind it can keep the Senate in session until next December. He, however, does not think that the House will go this far in the matter.

WILMINGTON WILL SPEND $200,000 FOR SEWERAGE SYSTEM

Wilmington, June 22.—The State Board of Health in session at Charlotte Tuesday afternoon, voted to approve in toto the plans for the proposed municipal sewerage system in Wilmington provided a sterlization plant is installed at the outlet below the city. The information of the action of the board was brought to the city yesterday afternoon by R. C. Cantwell, superintendent of the waterworks plant, who went to Charlotte, where the meetng was held, to urge action by the board. The proposed system will cost approximately $200,000. The plans will now be passed upon by the county and city boards of health, after which it is expected that the Council will get busy and begin construction of the plant.

TEN WERE KILLED IN FIGHT IN MEXICO.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY SUBMITTED TO COURT

Gentlemen of The Jury Found County Property And Institutions in Excellent Condition---True Bills For Term Number Thirty-Nine.

The grand jury of the present term of Superior Court yesterday submitted its report of the inspection of county property through S. W. R. Smith. A synopsis of the report gives a clear idea of the condition of several of the county institutions and pays a nice compliment to the present officers and their methods of management.

The members of the grand jury first visited the county jail and were well pleased with the excellent system in vogue there. They report that everything was found to be in a sanitary condition, and that, when questioned, the prisoners stated they were well fed and kindly treated. One serious defect was found, however, and the recommendation was made that prisoners who had tuberculosis or other contagious diseases should have a place prepared for them and be kept separate from the other prisoners. This fact has been recognized for some time and it is very likely that steps will soon be taken toward the elimination of the defect.

In regard to the county offices the report stated that the various offices had been examined and from all that could be seen they reported that "everything is now kept correctly and in such shape that quick reference can be made and information secured in a short time that heretofore has required days." They further commended the excellent method used by the auditor of receipts.

It was found that a sinking fund of $32,000 had been invested in real estate mortgages on property that was worth three times the amount of the mortgages. The ex-clerk has arranged to make a payment of the settlement due but has not yet done so. The report said that the present clerk had complied very efficiently with his duties.

A visit to the county home three miles east of the city showed that there are now 43 inmates at that institution, 25 white and 18 colored persons. All seemed well cared for and the majority appeared to be in good health. The sanitary conditions around the premises are good and attendants stated that disinfectants were used every day. Several necessities were found to be absent and it was recommended that screens for windows and other openings should be provided and likewise a ventilator for the kitchen roof, stain for the floors, and oil cloth for some of the beds were badly needed. The land adjoining the home was well tilled and the crops looked well. Forty-two acres of ground is planted in small grain and 35 acres in corn and small vegetables.

The same conditions prevailed in the nearby house of correction, in that the inmates were well fed and cared for. Eleven colored women, 14 negro men, and two white men are serving sentences at present in the workhouse. All were busy with their tasks as far as they were physically able. The farm was clean and handled and tilled well, large crops of hardy vegetables being raised. The rooms in the workhouse as in the home were recently treated to a much-needed coat of paint and they now presented a neat appearance. The superintendent's house has been painted outside and in. All of this work about the premises was done by the inmates.

The committee then visited the three convict camps. At Supt. Wyrick's camp on the McConnell road they found 11 convicts and 20 mules. At Supt. Tyson's camp located a short distance north of the city 34 convicts and 17 mules were being worked on the North Elm street extension. Supt. Hiatt's camp near Pleasant Garden was working 9 convicts and 20 mules. All the men said that they were well fed and well treated. No severety is practiced

WHAT IS WORTH WORTH? MUST BE SETTLED IN COURT

Wilmington, June 22.—As the result of a claim that he has not property in his name which would be sufficient to satisfy a judgment of such proportion as the one obtained recently in the U. S. Court by the Knickerbocker Trust Company of New York, W. E. Worth is defendant in supplemental proceedings in which the trust company is plaintiff, and a hearing is now being held before John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., appointed as referee to take the evidence in the case.

Execution was issued some days ago by the Clerk of United States Court here against Mr. Worth for the collection of a judgment of slightly more than $30,000 given the Knickerbocker Trust Company at the last term of Federal Court. The execution was served on Mr. Worth and it was announced that certain property supposed to be owned by him had been seized. Judgment was given against Mr. Worth for the amount alleged to be due for stock subscribed in the Rockingham Power Company which was financed by the Knickerbocker Trust Company. Payment of the amount was resisted by Mr. Worth on the ground of fraud, which was not sustained at the trial. Mr. Worth, it is understood, set up certain claims as to his property which resulted in the supplementary proceedings, the purpose being to ascertain what property, if any, Mr. Worth has at present. Mr. Worth testified that during the past several years he had given several pieces of property and sums of money to his wife. F. W. Dick, cashier of the People's Savings Bank, and J. V. Grainger, vice president of the Murchison National Bank, testified that Mr. Worth had held stock in both banks, but recently he had transferred his holdings. Hon. John D. Bellamy and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan represent Mr. Worth, while Thos. W. Davis, Esq., appears for the trust company. The hearing will likely continue for several days.

TREASURER WARE-KRAMER COMPANY ON WITNESS STAND

V. C. Leftwich Told How Baltimore Trade of His Company Was Beaten Down From Six Million Cigarettes Annually to Almost Nothing.

Raleigh, June 22.—Secretary and Treasurer V. C. Leftwich, of the Ware-Kramer Tobacco Co., now of Baltimore, testified today in the Ware-Kramer Co. vs. American Tobacco Co. trial, reviewing the rise of Ware-Kramer's White Rolls in Baltimore to six millions annually and the fight of A. T. Co. jobbers with free goods, special discounts and double coupons that, he insisted, cut the White Rolls down to minimum sales. He testified that Ware-Kramer Co. gave no discounts and free goods inducements in Baltimore until the A. T. Co. methods of warfare forced them to it in the hope of restoring the prestige of White Rolls. On cross examination he admitted writing numbers of letters that were read to him from the defendants' four volumes of Ware-Kramer Co. correspondence. One concerned sample cigarettes to the tune of 125,000 for "The Girl in Blue" and Baltimore baseball park. Explanation showed "The Girl in Blue" was a vaudeville performer who sang a song about White Rolls and threw the cigarettes into the audience, in various parts of the country where her show appeared. She required about fifteen thousand cigarettes a week. Another letter involved $25,000 appropriation by the directors of Ware-Kramer Co. for Jamestown Exposition advertising and other special advertising, Mr. Leftwich testifying that the exposition was a failure and the advertising scheme abandoned before the exposition closed.

The Leftwich testimony was without special feature. He proved about the best witness the plaintiffs have yet offered insofar as holding his hand under the cross-examination of Attorney Junius Parker, for the defendant, is concerned.

Counsel for the plaintiff and Ware-Kramer Co. vs. American Tobacco Co. say that it will require all of next week to complete the presentation of their evidence for the plaintiff and that it will probably be well in next week before Plaintiff E. D. Ware, who was president of the Ware-Kramer Co., takes the witness stand.

EDITOR HINMAN ON STAND BEFORE LORIMER COMMITTEE

Washington, June 22.—George W. Hinman, editor and publisher of the Chicago Inter Ocean, was the first witness today at the regular session of the Senate committee to investigate the election of Lorimer. The calling of Hinman was a surprise and was done on account of the desire of Mr. Hinman to keep a pressing engagement.

Former Governor Yates, of Illinois, who arrived at the Wrenn just before Mr. Hinman was called, requested that he be heard immediately. An executive session of the committee was held before the session at which it was decided to exclude witnesses not on the stand. Attorneys Marble and Healy, representing the committee, were busy, while former Judge Haney, representing Senator Lorimer, was in conference with him at his local hotel.

Mr. Hinman upon taking the stand was questioned at length in regard to the 'jack pot" fund of the Illinois legislature. Mr. Hinman said he had never talked with any one who contributed to a "jack pot" fund. He believed, however, that a "jack pot" had gone into every Illinois legislature. He said a "jack pot" was a corruption fund. Yates then took the stand and after a brief examination the committee adjourned.

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING IS NEARING COMPLETION

Building Said to be Most Complete in Arrangement And Appointments of Any School Building in State-Description of Building as it Will Appear Completed.

Workmen are busy plastering and putting down the flooring in the new Central High School building and the building will be in readiness by the beginning of the fall school term. While it is not as large as some, the building is the most complete of its kind in the State and it is so equipped that additional rooms can be erected with but little cost. The inside finishings are durable, but attractive in appearance.

There are fifteen class rooms, a large auditorium seating 500, principal's office, superintendent's office, rest room for lady teachers, toilets, lavatories and sinks, the boiler room, fuel room and a large storage room. Each of the class rooms are well lighted and equipped with electric lights, ventilators and automatic heating apparatus. There is a book case for each room.

Entering between two granite columns through the storm doors at the front one finds himself in the main hall at the door of the principal's office. Here an arrangement is made for a stove to be used at night without heating the entire building. On the principal's desk is a telephone system connecting the principal with each room in the building. Just in the rear of the principal's office is the office of the superintendent. This office is reached through the principal's office and also through a passageway in case the principal's office is closed. At the end of the passage is a closet for the male members of the faculty. On this floor are five class rooms, two being on the front side of a wide hall extending across the building and connecting with the hall running from the front entrance. The two class rooms in the rear are extraordinarily large ones and were so constructed that a seven foot hallway could be made on one side, extending to rooms in the rear should it be desired to add them. The auditorium is in the center of the rear portion of this floor and is well lighted.

On the second floor there are eight class rooms and a ladies parlor. This floor is reached by stairways running from each end of the hall running across the building and by a stairway running from the main hall. There is also a counter hall leading into a ladies parlor and rest room for the lady teachers, with toilet equipment in a side room. As on the second floor two of the rooms are large, having been prepared so a hallway could connect rooms in the rear when these are added. Then there is a kitchen and a sewing room on this floor, the kitchen being equipped with sewer, hot and cold water, gas, etc.

In the basement are two rooms for the use of the domestic science and manual arts departments, the closets, toilets, lavatories, etc., for the students, those for the boys being on one side of the building and those for the girls on the other. In the basement is located the boiler room, coal room and a large storage room. There is also a large electric fan that will force fresh air into each room in the building and remove the old air at regular intervals. This air duct can only be reached through the boiler room and the children cannot get around it. There is also a dust elevator connecting with each floor and the trash is swept from the floors into this chamber dropping it into the boiler room to be thrown into the furnace.

The arrangements are such that the boys will enter from the left side of the building and the girls from the right. The large hallway on the first floor will be equipped with foot warmers for use on wet days and in bitter weather. Here will be installed sanitary appliances for holding the cloaks, overcoats, hats and bonnets. The space under the stairways will be utilized in storing books. The hallways are wide and the entire building can be emptied within less than a minute in case of fire, there being three exits always open.

WATER METER SYSTEM SHOULD BE ADOPTED.

The business like way for selling water in a city is to sell it by measure. That is, run it through a water meter and sell it at so much per hundred or thousand gallons. This way is business-like and it is fair and reasonable to all water consumers. The man who uses a thousand gallons of water per month in Greensboro should not have to pay a water bill of the same size as the bill of the man who uses five or ten thousand gallons per month. Yet that is exactly what is being done all the while under the present system here. Some water consumers are paying too much for the water they use, while others are not paying a reasonable rate for one-tenth of the water they use. This state of affairs will continue to prevail until meters are installed and the water sold each consumer is measured.

The Creator of the universe probably intended that water should be free for the use of all and in unlimited quantities; but when man decided to forsake the country, which God made, and make a city for his own pleasure and profit, as he supposed, it was found after the experiment of city building had progressed considerably that water could no longer be obtained free but must be purchased. Then it was that private companies or corporations, and in some cases the municipalities, organized water companies and constructed water systems and began to sell water. This system has lasted, has been improved, has been found absolutely necessary in the towns and cities, and nowadays no city of any size can move along for a day without its supply of commercialized water. This being true, it follows that when water is sold it should be sold in the fairest and most business like manner possible. Water is a necessity, hence it should be sold at as low price as possible; but as it must be sold, it should be sold according to the rules of honesty which govern business transactions in all civilized communities. The only reasonable, fair and honest way to sell water is at so much per gallon. The present system in use in this city is unfair and unreasonable. There are hundreds of families in the city paying the same price for a supply of water and yet those who consume the minimum amount probably do not use more than one-fifth or one-tenth as much water as those consuming the maximum amount. It is unfair to require the user of two thousand gallons of water to pay the same price for his supply as the user of ten thousand gallons pays for his supply. Of course, as there is no limit to the amount of water which may be used, the user of the maximum amount is not violating any ordinance of the city and is not guilty of any moral wrong doing; but the user of water who cannot consume the maximum amount, who does not need that amount and who refuses to waste water in the effort to get the worth of his money, is the injured party and is being injured by his own city, which sells him water under this unfair arrangement. It is true, also, that the small consumer of water helps to pay for the water used by the large consumer. The city has found that it costs a certain sum per annum to supply Greensboro with water and a price per consumer is fixed on this basis. By this plan the small water consumer is forced to pay for a part of the water used by the large consumer and the people who allow water to go to waste.

Evidently the meter system is the reasonable and the fair way to sell water. The city can estimate what it costs to furnish a gallon of water to the consumer, but by the present method no estimate can be had of what the city receives per gallon for the water sold. The aggregate of water sales is obtainable, but it is evident that some of the water sold goes at one price and some of it at a different price. In fact, the prices vary almost to the extent of the number of consumers.

By the meter system a uniform price can be established for the different classes of water consumers, while it will be possible under that system to give the very large users of water a lower price per thousand gallons. In other words, a wholesale price can be made to large users of water.

The proposition to change to the meter basis will, as a matter of course, meet with some opposition. Changes of any sort, in business or in the daily routine of life, which affect the public in the slightest, are always opposed by some people while they may prove acceptable to a majority. The change to a meter water rate will undoubtedly be opposed by those consumers who realize that they are driving a sharp bargain with the city in the purchase of water. Those persons who know they are using several times the amount of water for the money paid the city which they would be able to buy at meter rates, will undoubtedly be opposed to a change. However, it is hardly probable that anything like a majority of the water consumers of the city will oppose the installation of meters. The majority of the water consumers are losers by the present arrangement; and they should consider their own interests, just as will be done by the smaller number which is profiting by the present plan.

It is understood that the Commissioners are considering the advisability of installing the meter system throughout the city. They should be encouraged to proceed with this plan. It will save the city a considerable sum of money annually, in addition to the benefits which will be secured to water consumers, as it will prevent water waste and reduce the cost of the water supply to the city. This proposition is, likewise, right in line with the causes which led to the adoption of the commission here. The commission was adopted for the purpose of giving Greensboro a business administration. This business administration ought to place the supplying and selling of water on a business basis, from the standpoint of the city and the standpoint of the consumer of water.

The newspaper men of the country are rejoicing. The rains came in time to save the blackberry crop.

Pictures of Uncle John Rockefeller "as he appears today" do not show that the old man is growing handsomer as he grows older.

Huntsville, Ala., a city having about ten thousand population, has voted for commission government. All sizes of cities are trying this plan.

Senator La Follette's friends gave him the Republican nomination at a dinner. Let the Senator proceed to make his campaign on a platform pledging square meals for all the people.

If Lorimer's seat in the United States Senate was bought for him without his knowledge he is undoubtedly the most innocent and unsophisticated man ever elected to that body.

The fight the Atlanta Journal is leading for commission government looks like a winner. Greensboro and Birmingham will welcome Atlanta into good company when she gets ready to take the step.

Andrew Carnegie thinks the cost of the coronation of England's rulers is a waste of money. Probably Uncle Andy has not stopped to consider that this may be George's plan to avoid the disgrace of dying rich.

The Durham Herald is a political pessimist. It says that while Mr. Aycock has declared the Democratic platform suits him, he would be an exception if he stuck to it after going to Washington. The course of Senator Simmons appears to have undermined the Herald's confidence in North Carolina's statesmen.

The Durham Herald believes that a club which regularly serves liquors to its members is violating the prohibition laws of the State and should be handled just like a walking blind tiger. The clubs generally have some method of dodging the law, however, which makes it difficult to handle them in the manner blind tigers are subjected to when caught.

The Durham Herald says very few people there are interested in the country club. This is natural, perhaps; as people are usually but little interested in the things with which they are most familiar; and the country covers such a large part of the area of Durham that nothing connected with country life appeals to the people there.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch, which has the faculty abnormally developed for seeing things as they are not, cannot be persuaded that Bryan will not again seek the Democratic nomination for President. The "Deacon's" or the "Major's" (may we stop to inquire which handle is proper?) aversion to Bryan is hardly equalled by his dislike for Virginia Methodists.

In the distribution of honors during the coronation period King George bestowed a baronetcy upon Dr. William Osler, who is now a professor at Oxford University. Sir William will now be able to see the fallacy of his chloroform theory. Honors may come to a man after sixty, whether he is worth anything to the world or not, after attaining that age.

The Fayetteville Index swats the dead beats, the folks who will read a newspaper as long as they can get it without paying for it, but who will become very angry and quit without paying what is due if they are asked to pay for the paper. The Index gives this class a warm roast. The best plan for handling the dead beats, however, is to spot them and then never let them get in debt to you. Daily papers as well as weeklies have to contend with dead beats. Such folks are parasites on the community and should be shown no consideration by newspapers or other classes of business men.

WHAT NORTH CAROLINA EDITORS ARE SAYING.

An act was passed by the recent legislature, but not generally known, provides that Alamance and Guilford counties may expend money in connecting the macadam roads through incorporated towns. This bill was gotten up with the view of finishing the new road through Gibsonville, so that there will be no break. Guilford has about three-fourths of a mile to complete the chain and Alamance about one-fourth.—Burlington News.

There will be a strong fight made between sections in Orange county as to the location of the proposed State highway, whether it shall go by way of Hillsboro, paralelling the railroad or whether it shall go by way of Saxapahaw and Chapel Hill. The only interest Alamance county has in the proposition as to which way it shall go is that we have the link practically completed by way of Saxapahaw, whereas it will require about eight miles of additional road to complete Alamance county's chain by way of Hillsboro, and it would be hard to get this amount of road built, under the present conditions.—Burlington News.

Friends in this city and county, his native home, will be sorry to learn that J. E. Latham, now resident in Greensboro, while returning from Winston-Salem last night in his automobile, collided with and seriously injured an old gentleman on the road. Those who know Mr. Latham's gentleness of spirit and kindness of heart will realize how deeply grieved he is at the accident and will sympathize with him accordingly.—Goldsboro Argus.

Guilford county people are to be congratulated upon securing Kenneth M. McIntyre as director of their new Department of Agricultural Education, which has been established in that county. Robeson and Guilford counties have established a commission of agriculture for their counties. Guilford is fortunate in securing Mr. McIntyre, who for several years, was head of the Wake county high school at Holly Springs, a school that, in the matter of farming and domestic science, has been so progressive as to be singled out for praise in the national educational gatherings.—Raleigh News and Observer.

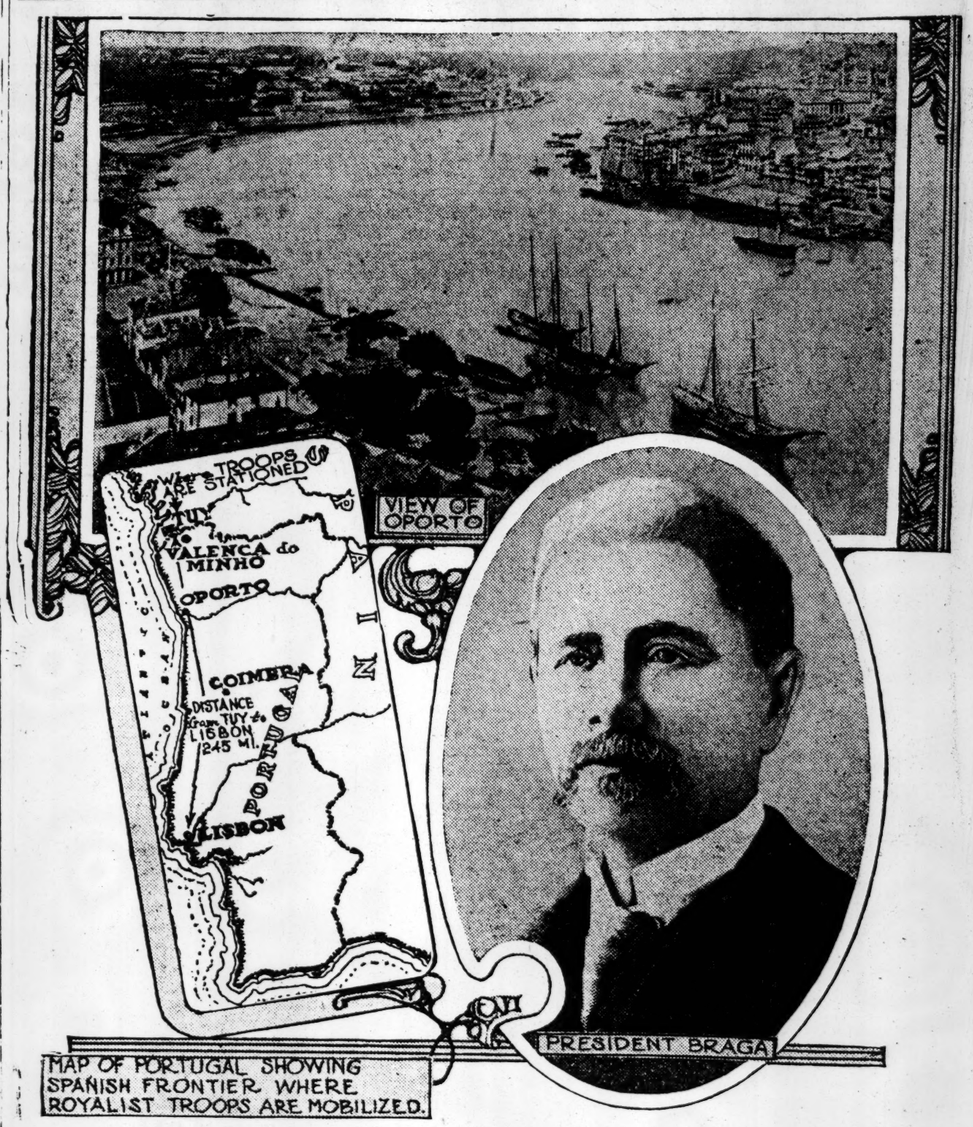
Greensboro's Recorder did right in putting it on those toughs who assaulted a man who appeared as a witness against their friends in a whiskey case in his court. Any community in which this element is on top is an object of pity.—Durham Herald.

Two well known white men of Greensboro were sentenced for twelve and seven months, respectively, to work on the streets for selling liquor. That is the way to go after them. If a man is convicted of selling liquor put a sentence on him that will make him not want a second one.—Greenville Reflector.

"Why don't you show a little ambition, Slithers?" asked Binks. "Go in and make a reputation for yourself."

"What's the use?" said Slithers. "I'd no sooner make it than these old ladies on the piazza here would tear it all to pieces."—Harper's Weekly.

War Is Imminent In Portugal; Followers of Deposed King Manuel Making Ready to Strike.



Portugal is on the eve of a revolution. The people are dissatisfied with the rule of President Theophile Braga and are clamoring for the return to power of ex-King Manuel. Armed bodies of Manuel's followers are declared to be on the border and ready to strike at the republic. The situation is described as sufficiently critical to warrant foreign warships being sent to Lisbon and Oporto.

HOME DAYS

(By MARGARET WATTS DE PEYSTER.)

With the formal call on a young lady's at home days, youthful visitors should strive their utmost to handle formalities in such a way that they will seem more like kindness than tricks of breeding, for after all society's fundamental needs are from the heart.

We were human beings before we were social lights, and we must be kind-hearted girls before we are gentlewomen. It is nice, more than nice, for the girl visitor to help her hostess over social snags by being as agreeable to the dull people as to the clever ones.

She is required by politeness to look pleased with the entertainment. She cannot be too noisy or take any iniitative upon herself unless she helps to receive. She mustn't go off in a corner and just talk with one girl or boy. She must be on hand to do anything required of her by the hostess—pour tea, sing, recite—but she must not press her services or gifts upon the occasion.

In her own home the polite girl may be a proper hostess whether the visitor is yound, old or middleaged. She must be punctillious with her own manners, but as blank as a dead wall with any break the guest may make.

She must know enough about housekeeping to see that the dinner, luncheon or tea table is set according to the dictates of elegant hospitality—and the first thing concerned is a clean cloth, clean napkins.

To put before a guest napery that is stained with previous us is a distinct social offense, though it matters little how plain the food is if the utmost cleanliness and good will go with it.

The girl who is the prettiest hostess literally gives over her house to the guest, but the well-bred guest takes what is her duty and no more.

When visiting it is necessary to ask for the girl's mother; when receiving, the guest's name must be announced to one's mother. For family dignity stands behind all social intercourse, and were a girl as brilliant as Solomon and as rich as Croesus, if she wishes to be thought an ornament in society she cannot afford to ignore this point.

Respect, too, for the comfort and dignity of all persons older than oneself is very requisite, so the moment you are a hoity-toity miss with old people, it does not require spectacles to know that you are badly bred.

Getting up when an old person enters the room, whatever the sex of the newcomer, is a courtesy expected of all young girls.

YOUR NEIGHBOR'S EXPERIENCE

How you may profit by it. Take Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. Mrs. E. G. Whiting, 360 Willow St., Akron, O., says: "For some time I had a very serious case of kidney trouble and I suffered with backaches and dizzy headaches. I had specks floating before my eyes and I felt all tired out and miserable. I saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised and got a bottle and took them according to directions and results showed almost at once. The pain and dizzy headaches left me, my eye-sight became clear and today I can say I am a well woman, thanks to Foley Kidney Pills." For sale by Howard Gardner.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

TALKING JUST TO KILL TIME.

Debate on Canadian Reciprocity Is Deadly Dull.

NO VOTES WILL BE CHANGED.

Friends of the Measure Not Upset by the Efforts of Its Foes—Lure of One Cent Postage Is Likely to Cause Another Attempt to Increase Rate on Second Class Matter.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 22.—(Special.)—Debate on the Canadian reciprocity bill in the senate is simply for the purpose of delay and to give senators an opportunity to express their opinions. That the discussion will not change a single vote is well known. It is also a fact that all amendments are to be voted down, including probably the Root amendment. At least that amendment will not be accepted by the house.

As a general thing the discussion in the senate is as dull as that in the house on the wool tariff. The fact is the general interest is taken out of the entire tariff discussion when it proceeds along lines of long speeches without anything in the way of votes and possible changes.

The efforts of the opponents of Canadian reciprocity, either in Washington or throughout the country, have not in the least upset or disturbed its friends. President Taft is more determined than ever, and he is perfectly satisfied with the backing he is receiving from the country.

Publishers Must Fight.

The lure of one cent postage is being held out to those who will help increase the rate on second class matter. So far as statements by postoffice officials go it appears that the proposed increase is to be confined to magazines as contained in the Hitchcock amendment last winter.

At the same time there is also a possibility of a general increase of second class rates, which will take in the newspapers as well as the periodicals. The postoffice department is pressing the matter, although the Hughes commission has not yet begun its second class rate investigation.

These New Senators.

The old senators have to be on their guard all the time or the new fellows will cut them out of the limelight. Here was Jim Reed of Missouri coming to the front with a proposition that Vice President Sherman had exceeded his authority in voting on a tie in the consideration of a constitutional amendment. It is true that the next day the old senators got their work in and discussed the subject for hours, but they could not entirely overshadow Reed. He had been "Johnny on the spot" with the first objection, and though he let the old fellows wrangle he and everybody else knew that he had "beat them to it."

Borah has already advanced to the front rank, and several other new men have not waited for any length of time to take part in the senate discussions. This is notably true of Senator Works of California, who breaks in unexpectedly and gives his views on public questions.

Madero's Double.

Few people in the United States have personally seen Madero, the successful revolutionist of Mexico, but according to his pictures he has a double in congress. Congressman Humphrey of Washington is a "dead ringer" for Madero, as they would say out Puget sound way. That is because Humphrey is wearing a black beard, something new with him this session.

In the Role of Guide.

An old man with a light suit and negligee costume and a fringe of whiskers about a striking countenance was seen in the ordinary gallery of the house the other day, leaning far over toward two or three visitors and pointing out celebrities on the floor. For a moment it appeared that a new guide had been added to the capitol force, but a closer inspection showed that it was our old college chum, Uncle Joe, and that he was showing the capitol sights to a few Danville folks.

Harvest For Jewelers.

The Taft silver wedding was a harvest for the jewelers and silversmiths. The White House family was the recipient of presents enough on the occasion to supply them and their children on down for a few generations. Presents were sent by individuals, by organizations, by groups and in fact in every way possible.

Persons who were not in the least interested in the Tafts were asked to contribute to purchase presents. Officeholders and office seekers were, of course, in evidence with gifts for the president. Many gifts attested the personal popularity of the president and had nothing whatever to do with favors received or expected.

Seeking Republican Votes.

The Democrats believe they have a wool bill that will command all the Democratic votes in the senate, and they are now seeking enough Republican votes to put it through. There is an impression that there are enough insurgent Republicans in favor of the bill to make its passage possible. The probabilities are, however, that the bill will be loaded with amendments in the senate and killed.

TRAIN IS HELD UP.

Masked Men Rob Last Train in City Limits of Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., June 21.—Two masked men tonight forced the eight mail clerks aboard a northbound Illinois Central passenger train to gather up the registered mail and deposit it in a gunny sack while the train was still within the city limits of Memphis.

After riding for several miles and satisfying themselves that they had all the valuable mail, the men signalled for the brakes and escaped in the darkness. Immediately information of the hold-up was telephoned to police headquarters, officers began a search for the robbers with the aid of bloodhounds.

"There is nothing in my play to bring a blush to anybody's cheek," said the author.

"Well," replied the producer, "bring the manuscript around when you get it finished."—Washington Star.

Do You Read the WANT ADS?

Have you found out what interesting news is contained in the want page? There is a reason why want ads are interesting to everybody. Supply and demand create a market. The man who has an article which he has no further use for, with the assistance of a little want ad, can find readily the other man who is looking for just that article. On the other hand the man who is looking for some particular article can find the man who has it and who it perhaps has not occurred that he can sell it, thus by means of the want ad purchasers and sellers for small articles get together.

Try a Want Ad in The Telegram, it makes no difference what you want, tell it here.

Convicts Given a Picnic Dinner.

The gang of convicts under Capt. J. W. Tyson, engaged in grading a road to connect North Elm street extended with the Battle Ground road, were given a picnic dinner yesterday. The dinner, which was sumptuous in every detail, was given by Messrs. Pat Cunningham, Dave Kirkpatrick, H. P. Wray, Clyde Clapp, Bruce Morgan and J. A. Hegwood and their families. A number of gentlemen and ladies went out to the vicinity of the convict camp and partook of the dinner which had been prepared and enjoyed seeing the pleasure afforded the convicts by their share of the spread. There are 31 negroes and 3 white men in Capt. Tyson's gang and the dinner given them yesterday was probably the finest meal any of them ever had the privilege of eating. They showed clearly their appreciation of the kindness of the good people who remembered them in this way.

COTTON LETTER TO J. E. LATHAM.

New Orleans, June 22.—The government map shows part cloudy in Texas and Oklahoma, no rain except .20 at Brownsville at the mouth of the Rio Grande. Cloudy in the central and eastern States, with general rains, the best in southern Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi. According to private reports there were a few light showers in eastern localities of Texas but, on the whole, advices yesterday afternoon of rain appears to have been very much exaggerated. Waco, for instance, reported a hard rain, whereas advices this morning from there said the rain was north of Waco. Certainly the exactness of recent private rain advices from Texas can be seriously questioned.

Official records today show: Brenham, .50; Columbus, .04; Henrietta, .04; Longview, .37; Palestine, .01; and Shawnee, .18; temperatures seasonable. Indications are for cloudy weather in Texas and Oklahoma, except fair in the West. Chances are for some precipitation in the northwestern central and southeastern third of the State, also in western Oklahoma, but generally clearing tomorrow. No general rain is indicated and the fact is beyond dispute that Texas and Oklahoma have not yet had a general rain. Another fact was that we were promised plenty of new cotton by June 20th, but so far Houston has only received two new bales.

The market opened about unchanged but soon recovered to 13c. for October. Leading minds on the trade have a strong opinion that he trade has bought a new crop largely and is willing to buy at prevailing prices, that the producing class in the South is independent and able to market July judiciously even if there is a large crop and that only speculation is vehemently subscribing to lower prices. The speculative short is already considerable whereas the world's readiness and power of absorption and the resistance to ruinous marketing and low prices by producers are considerations which in the present bearish temper, are hardly given sufficient consideration by speculation.

HAYWARD & CLARK.

HART WAS DRUNK AND HIS NAME WAS STRICKEN FROM JURY

Man Convicted of Retailing Was Drawn on Jury For Present Term of Superior Court — Arrested Three Times This Week on Charge of Drunkeness.

In Guilford Superior court in which he had been previously summoned as a juryman for the term, yesterday afternoon John Hart was found guilty of the charge of retailing, the case being an appeal from Municipal court. Sentence was not pronounced, there being another retailing case against the defendant. When the case was called Hart was drunk and had to be arrested and brought into court, this being the third time he had been arrested for being drunk this week since the trial of his case in Municipal court.

The jurors for this term of court were drawn the first Monday in May by the County Commissioners and Hart was among those summoned to serve. When his name was called Monday morning Sheriff Jones stated to the court that Hart was on trial in Municipal court for retailing, whereupon the court ordered his name stricken from the jury list.

The case against Hart occupied all of yesterday afternoon, there being several witnesses for the prosecution. The taking of evidence was soon completed, but the arguments were quite extended. The jury was less than five minutes in arriving at a verdict of guilty.

Yesterday morning when the case of David P. Green, which was set for trial, was called the defendant failed to answer and a bond of $300 was declared forfeited. Green was charged with seduction under promise of marriage. A capias was ordered to issue and if the defendant is caught it will go harder with him.

The cases against John Ray, Charles Roberson and J. W. Rainey, the charge being assaulting a detective with a deadly weapon, was continued on account of the illness of one of the defendants.

Roella Siler, colored, pleaded guilty to the charge of highway robbery, judgment being continued.

Charlie Holt was found not guilty of retailing. His case was tried at the former term, but a mistrial resulted.

Several other cases of minor importance were taken up during the day. This morning the case against Caleb Hanes, the charge being criminal assault, will be taken up and the entire day will most likely be consumed in the trial. A special venire of 75 men has been summoned to select the jury from, the offense being a capital one.

There are about 20 cases on the docket and it is not likely that all of them will be disposed of. There are as yet several retailing cases appealed from Municipal court and an effort will be made to have these disposed of during the term, which will not end before late Saturday afternoon.

DEPARTMENT HEADS ENTERTAINED BY MRS. WHITTED.

Most Enjoyable Spread Given—Mr. Andrews Announces Saturday Half Holiday.

Thursday night the department heads, the office force of the Public Service Company and the representatives of the local Press were the guests of the company and Mrs. Whitted, who is giving the daily cooking lectures at the offices of the Public Service Co. A most palatable menu was served and all present joined in the "Cook With Gas" slogan.

Mrs. Whitted is very much interested in her chosen work and she is an enthusiastic advocate of the better education of the girls in the schools of the land in what she styles the science of cooking. Mrs. Whitted is giving a daily cooking lecture and demonstration from 4 to 6 p. m. and a great many of the ladies of the city are taking advantage of the entire course.

At the conclusion of the supper Mr. Andrews, manager of the Public Service Company, made a most pleasant announcement to the men of the company, telling them that during the months of July and August the offices of the company would be closed on Saturday afternoon in order that the various employees might have a weekly outing. This announcement was of course greeted with applause and was a fitting finale for the very pleasant occasion.

NORTH STATE CAPITAL NEWS

Raleigh, June 22.—Capt. T. W. Fenter, chief clerk in the State's prison here, writing from Waterville where he went to investigate the collapse of the convict bull pen of the Trans-Continental Railroad Co. in which four state convicts were killed and others seriously injured Sunday, writes Superintendent J. J. Laughinghouse that he finds no criticism for anyone regarding the accident which he attributes to the severe rains that caused the ground to give way in a slide down the gorge. He says a new stockade, framed, is being prepared. The other was of logs. He writes that there is every indication of a determination to press forward the railroad work and that he never saw such marvelously beautiful mountain scenery.

The state department of agriculture and the United States department, co-operating, have procured the fining of W. A. Connell, in the Superior Court at Warrenton for persistent violations of the cattle quarantine regulations in connection with the campaign for the eradication of the cattle tick in the state. He persisted in getting in cattle and shipping out other cattle from his place which is within quarantine territory. He paid $201 fine and costs. The authorities say they find a very general desire to co-operate on the part of the farmers and cattlemen.

Ed Pennington, cashier of the Farmer's Banking and Trust Co., Tarboro, took charge of the Bank of Tarboro today as receiver, his appointment being procured by the corporation commission to wind up the affairs of the bank which has been practically wrecked through the shortages of Cashier Luther Hart, who suicided, and Assistant Cashier Hussey, who is being held under a $15,000 bond for his part in the defalcations which State Bank Examiner Doughton finds extended through seven years with much the more frequent and largest operations within the past few months.

Governor Kitchin has ruled that he has no authority to employ counsel on the part of the state to go to Baltimore to make the legal fight for the extradition of Madam Hunter, the Gypsy fortune teller who fleeced Mrs. Annie O. Eatman and others here out of large sums of money by playing on their credulity as to the Madam's power of working "spells" as well as forecasting the future. Col. J. C. L. Harris, as special counsel for Mrs. Eatman, will go to Baltimore Monday to make the fight before the governor of Maryland for the return of the woman to Raleigh, she having employed counsel to resist extradition.

In connection with the effort to get into the state library copies of all North Carolina books and pamphlets either by North Carolinians or concerning North Carolina there has just been added to the library a copy of "The Historic Sketch of the Reformed Church of North Carolina gotten out by a board of editors under the auspices of the church.

Adjutant General Leinster, of the North Carolina National Guard, is notified by the United States War Department that Capt. A. J. Dougherty, of the Thirtieth United States Infantry, will report in Raleigh for duty with the North Carolina Guard July 2 instead of August 1 as was first announced. This will put him in the service here in time to attend the encampments of the three regiments of infantry during July and August at Camp Glenn, Morehead. His headquarters will be in Raleigh and he will have a general oversight in co-operation with the adjutant general over the guard in this state. He has a wife and two children and they will make their home in Raleigh later in the fall.

Governor Kitchin announces a special term of Superior court for Rutherford county, two weeks beginning July 17 for civil causes. Judge Ferguson is to preside.

Commissions are issued by Governor Kitchin re-appointing Dr. D. H. Hill and W. J. Peele, of Raleigh, as members of the State Historical Commission. The contract for the carving of a marble bust of Governor Jno. M. Morehead to be placed in one of the niches in the rotunda of the State House, has just been awarded by the State Historical Commission, to Mr. Frederick W. Ruckstuhl, the distinguished sculptor who furnished the splendid busts of Governor Graham and Senator Ransom that already occupy niches in the rotunda. Furthermore he is now making a bust of Governor Johnston, that is being presented to the state by the Grand Lodge of Masons and is to occupy the fourth niche on the first floor. Both the Johnston and the Morehead busts are to be ready by October.

About 100 guests yesterday afternoon between the hours of 4:30 and 6:30 o'clock visited the home of Mrs. John A. Gilmer, on Bellemeade street, where she was entertaining at a brilliant reception complimentary to Mrs. W. A. Devin, of Oxford, the house guest of Mrs. Thomas Bernard, and of Miss Nettie Sloan, who on next Wednesday is to be married to C. J. Tinsley. The informality of the affair and Mrs. Gilmer's pronounced success as a hostess served largely to increase the pleasure of the visitors and the reception will be notable in the history of the social successes of this city.

As the guests arrived they were received by Mesdames G. W. Myers and F. P. Hobgood, Jr., and ushered into the hall where they were cordially welcomed by Mesdames Henry J. Farriss, A. R. Perkins, Whitted, of Roxboro, and Miss Imogene Bernard.

Before the ceremony Miss Annie Jones at the piano rendered Lohengrin's Swan Song, and as the couple entered the parlor the wedding march from Lohengrin was played. During the ceremony a selection from Schumann was rendered.

The game finally resulted in a score of 1,433 to 1,330 with Mrs. Sykes and her teammates, Misses Lucile and Guelda Elliott, Maud Lee Lancaster, and Walter J. Smith and Edward Eutsler, victors over George Westbrook, Emmet Aiken and Elmore Gattis, and Misses Annie Belle Harris and Anna Evans. HERE AT LAST

The attraction of "The Bowery" which is at the Ottoway today and tomorrow is from reports all that is claimed for it. It has given entire satisfaction at every place it has been shown, so there is no reason why it should not do the same here. From the interest that is being shown among the patrons of the popular little Theatre regarding it seems to indicate a big attendance, so it is a good tip to start early to get a good seat. INTEREST IN BIRD PROTECTION AROUSED BY MR. PEARSON

Before a large and appreciative audience last evening for nearly two hours T. Gilbert Pearson charmed his hearers with an interesting and instructive lecture on birds and bird-life and especially of the work being carried on by the Audubon Society for the protection of "our feathered friends." The lecture was illustrated with stereopticon views and Mr. Pearson, who is the secretary of this society, proved to be a speaker most familiar with his subject and most entertaining in the presentation of his subject.

Several dozen views each touching upon some form of bird life were shown by Prof. W. C. A. Hammel, as operator, and explained by the speaker. While pictures of many varieties of birds that frequent the shores of the Great Lakes and down the Atlantic coast were exhibited on the canvas Mr. Pearson told of the manner in which the steadily growing Audubon societies throughout the country were securing protection for the birds. The work is far-reaching and has already accomplished wonderful results. The skill and knowledge of the speaker in his subject and the beauty of the slides depicted made the occasion greatly enjoyed and increased local interest in the lives of birds and their protection.

"Chuck Connors" "The White Mayor of Chinatown" is coming to the Ottoway Theatre today. June 22, 1t

KILPATRICK SEEKS TITLE.

Yale's Star Athlete Will Go After All Around Championship.

Yale will have a representative in the all round national championship this year. John R. Kilpatrick, the captain of the track team and star end of the football eleven, has decided to compete in this event at the championship meet, which will be held in Chicago July 29.

Kilpatrick is a great all round athlete. He has great ability with the weights, is a good jumper and hurdler. He is also a fast sprinter and can run and walk a mile in fairly fast time.

Kilpatrick is a big, powerfully built fellow, weighing nearly 200 pounds, but despite his weight is as agile as a panther. He has begun systematic training for this event, and Johnny Mack, his trainer, believes he will be in good enough condition on the day of the meet to carry off stellar honors.

For Yale to win this important event Kilpatrick must be at his best and show form he has lacked in previous meets. Opposing him in that competition will be the greatest athletes in the country. Martin Sheridan, the record holder of this event, has signified his intention of competing. Others who are likely to compete in this event are Garrells, the Chicago champion; F. C. Thomson of Los Angeles, who won the event last year, and John Bredemus of Princeton, winner of the title in 1909.

CATCHER THOMAS BOASTS OF HIS LUCK.

"You can call me a lucky ball player," says Catcher Ira Thomas of the Athletics, "for I have been literally canned into two world's series. The New Yorkers sent me to Detroit in time to take part in the melon cutting with the Cubs, and then the Detroits turned me over to the Athletics to take part in another struggle for post-season gold. I believe this is a record that no other player can boast of."

STANAGE AFTER RECORD.

Detroit Backstop Says He Will Catch In Every Game This Season.

Barring accident, Oscar Stanage, the Tigers' star backstop, proposes to break the record this year in the matter of games he intends to catch.

Stanage expects to be behind the bat in every game the Tigers play this year, barring accidents, of course. He feels that he can accomplish this feat with credit to himself, and as Jennings is none too long on catchers he is encouraging Stanage in his intentions. Stanage, by the way, has developed into a first class catcher. He works easily behind the bat, uses good judgment and makes his work easy.

BASEBALL CHIPS

Russell Ford's mystery ball breaks both ways.

Manager Chance pays "Three Fingered" Brown $50 every time he acts as rescuing angel.

A new baseball mask is on the market. The upright between the eyes is removed, so the receiver won't be cross eyed.

Fred Luderus is developing into one of the great sluggers of the National league. His bat has won any number of games for the Phillies.

Pitcher Ables, formerly of the New York Americans and now of the Oakland (Cal.) club, can hide a ball in his meat hooks. The batsman can't catch even a glimpse of the leather as it nestles in the big twirler's hamlike hands.

Edmund Lamy, who for four years was the undisputed champion of America on skates on the ice, has made good in his attempt at professional baseball with the Mansfield team of the Ohio and Pennsylvania league. Manager Hahn, formerly of the White Sox, believes he has a find in the Saranac Lake (N. Y.) player.

CAN DONLIN COME BACK?

Baseball Fans Anxious to See Whether He Is a Has-been or Not.

Will Mike Donlin, the once famous outfielder of the New York Nationals, be able to come back? That is a big and interesting question, since the National commission reinstated him the other day. Mike is a natural hitter, and a lot of men of that sort have retained their batting eyes long after the advancing years have made them too slow to get out of their own way. He played more or less semiprofes-sional ball while under suspension for not reporting to New York, but he was not constantly in the game.

It would be unwise to draw comparisons between him and Jimmy Callahan of the Chicago Americans, the greatest come-back of the age, for Callahan played regularly throughout the season every year when he was under suspension. Mike has been flying around the country in the show business, and the constant appearance before the footlights hardly brightened his own lamps. He may be the Mike of old, but we will have to wait until he has been in harness for a couple of weeks before judgment can be passed upon him.

SPITBALLS DON'T BOTHER SWEENEY.

"I don't find that the spitball bothers the catcher any in throwing to bases," says Ed Sweeney, catcher of the New York Americans. "It depends somewhat on the pitcher, but Russell Ford wets only a small spot on the ball, and the chances are small that the catcher's fingers will take hold on the wet spot.

"There have been times when I have got hold of the wet spot and had no idea where I was going to throw the ball, yet made perfect throws. But I throw the ball with the whole hand instead of with two fingers and in that way generally avoid getting in trouble through the ball slipping off the fingers."

PIRATES HAVE MANY VETS.

No Other Club Hangs On to Old Timers as Long as Pittsburg.

There is not a club in either major league which is harboring as many veterans as the Pittsburg club of the National league. Manager Fred Clarke himself is way up in the thirties. Then comes Tommy Leach, who is not far behind Clarke in the matter of age and yet displays more energy and aggressiveness than 90 per cent of the youngsters who break into the game. Hans Wagner is by no means a kid. He has been playing for years and yet is a star. Last, but not least, comes Deacon Phillippe, the veteran twirler, who is really being carried because of the fact that he did much for the Pirates in years gone by. No other club shows such an array of veterans. When the average ball player grows old he is turned adrift, but there appears to be more real sentiment in the Pittsburg club than in any other.

Chance Not a Great Trader.

Talking about trades, Clark Griffith does not make all the bad ones. Ingerton, Miller and Pfeiffer, former Cubs, are going good with Boston; Luderus and Moran are "there" with the Phillies. It appears that Frank Chance is also something of a "philanthropist" in making deals.

CURRENT SPORT EVENTS

Sir Thomas Lipton may challenge again for the America's cup.

Washington will have a new ball park if the present plans of the owners of the club do not fall through. Work will start on the new grounds on the next trip of the Senators, July 2.

England will be represented at the motorboat races for the British international trophy by three boats. A determined effort to bring back the cup to England will be made by the British yachtsmen.

Tennis has been recognized as an intercollegiate sport at Wisconsin, and regular team monograms will hereafter be awarded to those who make the team. The season for the Badgers will wind up this month at the Chicago tournament.

FOR THE WARMER DAYS

HOT-WEATHER DISHES CONCOCTED BY FAMOUS CHEFS.

New and Palatable Food to Tempt Jaded Palates—How Brook Trout Are Served at New York Swell Hotel.

The chefs of New York hotels have invented many new dishes for the hot days; every housewife will be interested in them, as they suggest new and palatable food for jaded palates.

At the Waldorf-Astoria are brook trout with sauce au blue. The trout are taken alive out of a fountain basin in the grillroom, then dipped into boiling water. When properly done they are served in a delicious sauce made from old Burgundy and other ingredients, which are a secret of the inventor, Chef Nence. Cooked in this way, one only knows the delicious flavor of a brook trout.

Another Waldorf-Astoria surprise is a Foster salad, made by cutting in halves large King of Siam oranges, scooping out the pulp, lining the shells with small leaves of lettuce, returning the pulp mixed with finely-grated pineapple, sprinkling with Jamaica rum, covering with mayonnaise, dusting with paprika, then setting each half orange on a leaf of lettuce or a plate, ready to serve.

Chef Huguet of the Hotel Knickerbocker, has a number of new spring dishes with which he is delighting the patrons. One of the most popular of his surpises is the following: Take a Boston duckling, a very young one. In a baking pan put a layer of sliced Spanish onions and some pats of sweet butter; sprinkle with salt and pepper; lay the duckling on the preparation of onion, put it in a hot oven, and let it cook about forty minutes. Remove the pan from the oven, take the duckling out of the pan, lay it on a platter, pour a glass of white wine and a glass of old Madeira in the pan, put it over the fire, let it come to a boil, then add one large glass of veal stock, two fresh tomatoes, peeled and sliced. Cook for thirty minutes, strain the gravy through a cheese cloth sieve, add one ounce of sweet butter and half a glass of curacao.

In the meantime peel a lemon and an orange, slice these in julienne style, blanch in water and add to the gravy. Pour it over the duckling very hot. The duckling must be laid on slices of toast on a hot platter, with a slice of orange on its breast and on each side. Serve sliced oranges with this dish.

Two-thirds whole onions sliced, one-third tart apples cut in dices. Smother together in a closely covered dish, and serve in a border around calves liver saute in sweet butter.

A Milliner's Aid.

An excellent preparation of stainless glue for millinery purposes has recently been put on the market. Kid, velvets and tapestries, as well as the most delicate silks and satins, may be glued on buckram frames without injury to the material. The glue is water and weather proof and will not dry or peel off. The lovely floral effects and smart butterfly and quill designs, shown by the leading milliners, may be contrived at home with a little ingenuity and the aid of most welcome millinery requisite.—Vogue.

Creamy Potatoes.

One quart of sliced potatoes, two tablespoons butter, two teaspoons salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, three-quarters pint of milk; wash and pare the potatoes, cut them into thin slices; put all the ingredients together in a small cooker pail or pan, set this in a larger cooker pail of boiling water; when it is steaming hot, put the small utensil directly over the heat until it boils; replace it in the pail of boiling water, set in cooker for one hour. Serves four persons.

Deviled Meat.

The wings, drum sticks and side bones of chicken or cold, rare beef or underdone mutton may be used. One tablespoon butter, one teaspoon of vinegar, one of Worcestershire sauce, one-half teaspoonful of made mustard and a pinch of cayenne; make a sauce of the butter, vinegar, etc.; mix these thoroughly, make cuts in the meat with a knife, rub this sauce into them, rub the chafing dish with a little butter, heat it and grill the meat. Serve hot.

Asparagus Omelet.

Beat five eggs separately, add two tablespoonfuls of thick cream to the yolks with a tablespoonful of butter, salt and pepper to taste. Fold in the frothed whites, mix well, add a half teaspoonful of baking powder and a teacupful of steamed asparagus tips. Melt a medium sized lump of butter in the frying pan, pour the omelet in. Fry a delicate brown on both sides and serve at once.

Glaced Fruits and Nuts.

Boil without stirring 10 or 15 minutes, one pound of granulated sugar, one-half cup of water. When brittle remove from fire, add a tablespoon lemon juice and let it stand over hot water. Then on the end of a hat pin immerse sections of oranges (all diced), grapes, figs, almonds and walnuts set on oiled paper.

Old Trays.

When light oak trays have been badly marked, well wash and rub with warm beer until the stains have disappeared. Polish in the usual way.

Quiet Day in Municipal Court..

Only two unimportant cases were on the docket of Municipal Court yesterday morning. Charlie Shaw, colored, was dismissed in the case charging him with running a dance hall without license, and he was found guilty of an assault on Viola Chavis, for which offense he was taxed with the costs.

A white woman who gave her name as Florence Overman in court, but called herself Della Williams when questioned by the police, was arraigned on a charge of vagrancy. The case was continued for further evidence and will be aired again in the near future.

A woman's eight-hour bill governing employment of women and children in the District of Columbia was introduced by Representative Berger, of Wisconsin. Girls under 18 years, the bill provides, cannot be kept at work after 6 p. m.

Ordinary unemployment not strike pay, is by far the heaviest charge on organized workers in England. The Amalgamated Society of Engineers is typical of the whole body of skilled unionism. Its expenditure on ordinary unemployment has been fully $20,000,000 up to date.

Wage agreements between employers and employes of Germany are increasing. In 1909 there were 6,578 wage agreements in force, covering 137,124 plants, and affecting 1,107,478 employes.

Domestic servants have become so scarce in Germany that they are able to dictate almost any terms to their employers. The dearth of servants is due uargely to Germany's industrial prosperity which creates a great demand for female labor in all branches of commerce and manufacture.

W. G. Lee, President of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, in his annual report certifies to the fact that the increase in wages of the trainmen in the United States during the year 1910 amounted to $37,000,000.

In the face of a determined opposition by the postoffice department against the employes joining or forming unions, increases in membership and organization of new unions are continued. The arbitrary action of the officials has caused and is causing a cumulative restive spirit among them, owing to the uncertainty existing as to what new plan of persecution may be put into operation at any time.

A meeting was recently held at Capetown, South Africa, of representatives of all trade unions in South Africa for the purpose of framing a constitution for the proposed South African Federation of Trades Unions. The Amalgamated Society of Engineers have nineteen branches in that country and the constitution finally adopted conforms to that of the Federation of Trade Union in Great Britain.

Old age pensions, accident and sickness pensions and other provisions for wage earners grow apace in Germany. In 1909, out of a population of about 64,000,000, nearly 10,000,000 men and nearly 3,500,000 women were insured against sickness; nearly 15,00,000 men and 9,000,000 women against accident. Disability insurance embraced about 15,400,000 persons. Employers paid about $98,000,000 in premiums, employes about $81,000,000 and State contributions were more than $12,000,000.

The first year of the Government Labor Exchanges in Great Britain, has closed with the system announced as successful. About 450,000 vacancies were reported by employers to the exchanges and 370,000 of them were filled. In order to enable workmen without money to reach distant places where they were in demand, the Government Exchanges provided transportation, the cost of which has been repaid out of the workingman's wages. Perhaps the most surprising development has been the fact that more skilled than unskilled workmen have found employment through the exchanges.

F. S. Rexford, 615 New York Life Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., says: "I had a severe attack of cold which settled in my back and kidneys and I was in great pain from my trouble. EVERYTHING "FREE."

Enthusiastic Democrat Asks for Horse and Household Articles.

Washington, D. C., June 22.—There is much misconception in some sections regarding the true meaning of the free list bill, recently passed by the House. Today a member from South Carolina received a letter from a constituent saying that he had been waiting patiently many years for the Democrats to get control of the House, so that everything would be "free." He had read of the bill and was glad that hereafter he would not have to pay for anything. He asked his representative please to send at once a horse to take the place of one that recently died; a dozen dining-room chairs, some new chinaware, a new carpet for the parlor and a few other incidentals. After closing the letter he added a postscript, in which he said that he hoped the Congressman would not forget to send the "old lady" a new sewing machine to take the place of one she had used many years.

The recipient of the letter was touched by the appeal, but had to reply that if the writer got the things he wanted he probably would have to pay good American dollars for them.

ANDERSON WON BY HARD HITTING FROM GREENVILLE

Anderson, S. C., June 22.—Hard and frequent hitting allowed the locals to win this afternoon's game, 7 to 4. Good support by each side only served to keep the runs down. Cashion kept his hits well scattered except in the third and fifth innings. An unusual feature was the fact that two left-handed Greenville batters got four hits out of five times up off of Scanlon, a southpaw. Pitcher Ridgeway has returned to the Greenville team and will probably work tomorrow.

Score by innings:			R.	H.	E.
Greenville	101	032 000	7	14	1
Anderson	003	010 000	4	13	1

Batteries: Cashion and Kite; Scanlon and Brannon. Umpire, Nugent.

GREENSBORO TOOK GAME FROM MUSICIANS BY CLOSE MARGIN

Spartanburg, S. C., June 22.—Hits off Hill this afternoon would not have lost the game to the Patriots but for the errors behind him. Walters prevented many hits by the locals but he allowed them to bunch them in the 4th inning. A walk, a single and a wild throw gave Greensboro her first run. Three singles, an infield out and a muffed fly gave them the two in the sixth. Spartanburg made two from an error, a sacrifice, a double and a single.

Score by innings:			R.	H.	E.
Greensboro	001	002 000	3	11	1
Spartanburg	000	200 000	2	6	2

Batteries: Walters and Stuart; Hill and Westlake. Umpire, Leibrich.

TWINS POUNDED HANKIE HARD AND WON FROM HORNETS

Charlotte, June 22.—Hankie was wild in today's game and besides he was knocked all over the lot, allowing the Twins to fatten their batting averages considerably. They secured thirteen hits for 18 bases, Clancy leading with four safeties out of six times at bat. Ten free passes were granted the Twins by the ever liberal Hankie.

Swindell was steady after the fourth frame, holding the Hornets to nine hits for 14 bases. Agnew and Seigfried carried off the honors for the Hornets. Five stolen bases were secured off Malcolmson.

The contest was slow and uninteresting. Bases on balls, timely hits and errors by the locals gave the game to Winston.

Score by innings:			R.	H.	E.
Winston	010	031 053	13	13	2
Charlotte	010	300 001	5	9	6

Batteries—Swindell and Daley; Hankie and Malcolmson.

Where They Play Today.

Greensboro at Spartanburg.
Charlotte at Winston.
Greenville at Anderson.

Had Bausewine pitched Charlotte would have won.

If we could get five runs off Swindell we could win easily.

Tony is winning games right along since he has gotten in good shape.

Winston's new catcher was on the receiving line in yesterday's game at Charlotte.

Hankie certainly got a bunch of games in that fiasco in the Queen City.

Mr. Lave Cross, please don't lay down to Winston any more, if you would do such a thing.

Carroll will get back in the game sometime next week. He will bring joy to the fans upon his return.

When the team comes back next week the management hopes to see crowds that are commensurate with the team and the article of ball it is playing. There is no excuse for so small attendance when Doyle's men are winning two out of every three games. Get your business in shape and see the games.

except for safekeeping. The mules are in fine condition and splendid work is being done on the roads by the convicts.

Attention was called to the fact that the court house is located in the noisiest part of the city and that, especially in the summer when the windows are open, it is very difficult for the jurors to hear what is said by the witnesses on account of the noise of street cars, automobiles and other vehicles. If possible it will be well to change the arrangement of the interior and place the witness stand closer to the jury.

The grand jury returned a total of 39 true bills and rejected three.

It is understood that the jury handed in a batch of presentments with its report, and it is rumored that some of these contain information of a startling nature. Solicitor Gattis, when asked about the matter, said he had not opened the presentments and was unable to give any information.

Jack Mosby recruited from Pia Juana marched three miles to the international boundary line and surrendered to the United States authorities this evening. Two rebels were killed and 1 wounded, while it is reported that the federals lost 50 men. Mosby's men were outgeneraled at every point and overrun by the superior Mexican troops. With this victory it is believed the revolt in lower California is ended.

Faulkner's Hearing Postponed

The Board of Commissioners yesterday afternoon decided to postpone the hearing of charges against H. H. Faulkner, the negro school teacher accused of misconduct in office and defrauding until July 18. The charges were due to have been aired yesterday. A large number of bills were audited as the commissioners will go to Salisbury today to inspect a 'tar bed" road with a view of treating the streets of Greensboro with this material.
